

Seasonal Guide

Help your clients travel in the right season for the best trip!

BEST TIMES TO VISIT:

Sub-Tropical (Northland, Auckland)

November - March:

- Expect long sunny days, warm temperatures, and plenty of beach-perfect weather. Ideal for coastal road trips, sailing in the Bay of Islands, and soaking up Auckland's outdoor dining and harbour vibes.

Temperate (Wellington, Napier, Christchurch)

October - April:

- Mild, settled weather makes this a favourite for garden tours, cultural events, and food & wine travel. Think vineyard lunches in Hawke's Bay, art festivals in Wellington, and heritage exploring in Christchurch.

Cool/Mountain (Queenstown, Fiordland, Rotorua)

December - February (summer):

- Warm days perfect for hiking, lake cruises, adventure sports, and scenic flights — with alpine views at their best.

June - August (winter):

- Prime ski season in Queenstown and Wanaka. Expect snowcapped peaks, après-ski energy, and crisp, clear days — also a great time for hot pools and glacier sightseeing.
